Philosophy, Science and Religion

Prof : Ghulam Rasool Adeem

From time immemorial man has been trying to overcome his surroundings. He has been struggling hard to find the answer of these three question, why, when and how. This strenuous endeavor does not seem to cease at some point. Man has pondered over the mysteries of the universe through mental somersaults. He claims to untie a knot. But at the second moment he confesses several other knots to be untied.

Philosophical approach of his efforts leads him to unknown even unwarranted results where he stands nonplussed. So one perplexity leads to another enigma.

A philosopher reaches a result after life-long mental exercises. A contradictory note of
