MESSAGE

I am pleased to know that Sheikh Zayed Islamic Centre, University of Karachi is bringing out its first trilingual journal on "The Islamic Culture" that will deal with Islamic disciplines and Arabic language, linguistics and literature. This journal will certainly provide an opportunity to the teaching faculty, the scholars, the researchers and the students enabling and encouraging them to contribute their research articles relating to Islamic Culture.

I appreciate the initiative of the Administration of the Centre for launching the publication of this journal. I also admire the efforts of those who have made the publication of this journal possible and, at the same time, I hope that not only this journal but similar knowledge provoking and scholastic activities on modern patterns find continuity in the interest of higher education.
