

Islamic International Conference

3 - 5 NOVEMBER 2000

Falah Foundation-Pakistan

Under the auspices of

Lahore Islamic University, Lahore

The Islamic International Conference held at Aiwan-e-Iqbal, Lahore, Pakistan from 3rd to 5th November 2000 adopts the following resolutions:

1. Faith, Unity and Discipline should be adopted as a motto for the Islamic Ummah.
2. OIC should be restructured and strengthened to function effectively through its institutions with a view to promote and serve the vital interests of Muslims and thus to achieve unification of Ummah.
3. New institutions like, Majlis-e-Shora, Defence & Security Council, Islamic International Court of Justice, Ombudsman, Laws reforming Council, Council of Trade and Commerce, Foreign Affairs Council, Bait-ul-Mall (Islamic Monetary Fund), Disaster Management Committee and Health and Education Committees should be established under the auspices of OIC.
4. Strategy should be planned to motivate the International opinion for having a permanent seat in the Security Council of UN for the Muslim Ummah.
5. Ummah must condemn human rights violation, atrocities and brutalities being inflicted upon the Muslims of Kashmir, Palestine, Bosnia, Cyprus, Chechnya, Kosovo, Philippines, Burma and Eritrea. Concrete efforts and practical measures, including cessation of trade relations with the countries aiding the countries perpetuating brutalities, be taken to resolve the long outstanding grievances of these innocent Muslims and realize their right to freedom according to their wishes.
6. Disputes or conflicts existing or arising amongst the Muslim countries (including the issue of the prisoners of Kuwait and Afghanistan with their respective rivals) be resolved through arbitration, mutual negotiations or reference to the Islamic International court of Justice.
7. Measures should be adopted to facilitate free movement

8. Ummah has to rediscover its moral ideological responsibilities. Its member countries should have the twin prerequisites of (1) Loyalty to Allah and (2) Trust of the people.
9. Ummah's rights to retrieve its hard earned wealth swindled and kept in Western Banks must be recognized and moral, political and legal measures should be taken to bring back this wealth to the Ummah.
10. Muslim countries should establish a monetary fund to help out indebted Muslim countries by providing financial aid and interest free soft loans.
11. Ummah must promote mutual trade, commerce and its multinational companies.
12. Ummah must launch its own communication satellites to uplift information technology and media of Muslim countries.
13. Science and Technology Centres of Excellence and Institute of Media Studies should be established in regions of Ummah and transfer of technology in Muslim countries should be promoted.
14. Islamization of Education to promote Islamic values and adoption and promotion of Islamic Literature and literary values so that the new generation may be able to defend Islamic faith and values.
15. Free exchange of Literature and Scholars in Muslim countries should be promoted.
16. Muslim counties should recognize the Afghanistan government at Kabul and extend necessary aid to help the Afghans to rebuild their country.
17. A resourceful body of Ummah must be established to participate globally in sending Scientific Research Missions to Space, Antarctica and Deep Sea Waters.

(Khalil-ur-Rehman Khan)
Chairman, Organizing Committee
Islamic International Conference

Hafiz Abdul Rehman Madni
Rector
Lahore Islamic University
Managing Director
Falah Foundation, Pakistan